

Asia continues to experience significant growth in bond and high yield note offerings. Conyers' team has acted as offshore legal advisor to a large number of Hong Kong listed (and numerous unlisted) Bermuda, British Virgin Islands and Cayman Islands companies engaged in raising debt capital in the Asian debt markets.

Conyers advises clients on Bermuda, British Virgin Islands and Cayman Islands law in connection with bond or high yield note offerings from inception to include the structuring of the capital raising, through preparation and issue of the Initial and Final Offering Memorandum; launch of the offering (road show and book building stages); Pricing (generally T+3 or T+5); and Closing.

Our Hong Kong Office lawyers are familiar with all types of bond and high yield note transaction structures (secured and unsecured) and offer specialist advice and assistance for each particular type and nature of the bond or high yield note issue.

The nature of the bond or high yield note offerings (including Hong Kong listed, Regulation S and Rule 144A offerings) that Conyers has advised on include:

- Investment grade bonds
- Senior unsecured bonds
- High yield bonds
- Convertible and exchangeable bonds
- Dim sum bonds
- Credit enhanced bonds
- Perpetual bonds
- Panda bonds
- Kangaroo bonds
